

2019 TEEN SUMMER READING

Teens 13 to 17: complete a BINGO and turn in your game boards to the library to be entered in a drawing for a “Universe of Stories” prize pack. Drawing September 3rd.

Watch the 50th Anniversary of Apollo 11 moon-landing.	Use our Local History section to find stories about Avon.	Find a constellation in the night sky.	Attend a Draw-down event at a library to learn how to save the Earth.	Read any book.
Tell someone a story.	Read a book about an astronaut or scientist.	Write a short story.	Use ancestry.com at the library to find stories of your family.	Visit a website about space or space exploration.
Read a book about space.	Participate in a book discussion.	FREE  SPACE	Find a satellite in the night sky.	Share a story with an adult.
Listen to an audio book.	Attend a program at the library.	Watch a movie about space.	Write a story in a journal.	Use a telescope or binoculars to view the stars.
Read a book BY an astronaut or space scientist.	Take a photo of the moon.	Use your library.	Watch a documentary about space.	Visit a planetarium.

NAME: _____

Phone or email: _____

